D. Commentary

The 5pm ministerial media briefing was led by the Culture Secretary, Oliver Dowden, who reported that 177,216 tests had been carried out in the UK during the previous day – the highest daily total so far.

The Culture Secretary announced that Her Majesty The Queen’s Birthday honours list will be delayed until Autumn 2020 so that the contribution made by many people in fighting the pandemic can be recognised. The Queen has already approved a knighthood for Captain Tom Moore, in recognition of his outstanding achievement in raising near £33 million for NHS charities.

The Culture Secretary explained that government’s Coronavirus Community Support Fund for small and medium sized charities will open for applications tomorrow, Friday 22nd May 2020.

The fund has two key objectives:

- To increase community support to vulnerable people affected by the COVID-19 crisis, through the work of civil society organisations; and
- To reduce temporary closures of essential charities and social enterprises, ensuring services for vulnerable people impacted by COVID-19 have the financial resources to operate, and so reduce the burden on public services.

The government is additionally releasing £150 million from dormant accounts to help social enterprises get affordable credit to people who are financially vulnerable and support charities tackling youth unemployment.

The Culture Secretary explained that he is setting up a renewal taskforce to help get the country’s recreation, arts and leisure sector up and running again.
