D. Commentary

The 4pm ministerial media briefing was led by the Transport Secretary, Grant Shapps. His focus was on transport and the measures that are being put in place to bring back more public transport services across the country, safely. He announced £283 million of new investment so that buses, trams and light-rail may start moving back to a full timetable, but warned that social distancing measures meant that even with a fully restored transport network the network would only have (at best) one-fifth of normal capacity. He emphasised that it was essential for people to avoid the ‘rush hour’.

Measures to support the opening of the public transport network included:

- Marshals: These have already been deployed during the past week in London to prevent services from becoming overcrowded. This involved the deployment of nearly 3,500 British Transport Police and employees of Network Rail and Transport for London. This will be extended in the coming weeks with the addition of volunteers.
- ZipAbout: This is an online passenger information service which tells rail users how disruption and crowding may affect their journey. The new service has been successfully trialled in Birmingham and will be extended soon.

The Transport Secretary described a range of significant planned improvements to the road and rail sectors, including the reversal of some of the so-called ‘Beeching’ rail cuts of the 1960s. Dr Richard Beeching was Chairman of the British Railway Board and his report ‘The Reshaping of British Railways’, published on 27th March 1963, led to the closure of thousands of miles of railway and stations.

COVID Alert Levels
Level	Description	Action
5	As level 4 and there is a material risk of healthcare services being overwhelmed	Social distancing measures increase from today’s level
4	A COVID-19 epidemic is in general circulation; transmission is high or rising exponentially	Current social distancing measures and restrictions
3	A COVID-19 epidemic is in general circulation	Gradual relaxing of restrictions and social distancing measures
2	COVID-19 is present in the UK, but the number of cases and transmission is low	No or minimal social distancing measures; enhanced testing, tracing, monitoring and screening
1	COVID-19 is not known to be present in the UK	Routine international monitoring
