D. Commentary

The 5pm daily ministerial media briefing was led by the Prime Minister, Boris Johnson. He explained that the government was satisfied that its five tests for adjusting the lockdown were currently being met and on that basis the plans to adjust the lockdown in England will go ahead, starting on Monday, 1st June 2020. The five tests are summarised below:

5 tests for adjusting the lockdown

- 1 Protect the NHS's ability to cope. We must be confident that we are able to provide sufficient critical care and specialist treatment right across the UK.
- 2 See a sustained and consistent fall in the daily death rates from COVID-19 so we are confident that we have moved beyond the peak.
- 3 Reliable data from SAGE showing that the rate of infection is decreasing to manageable levels across the board.
- 4 Be confident that the range of operational challenges, including testing capacity and PPE, are in hand, with supply able to meet future demand.
- 5 Be confident that any adjustments to the current measures will not risk a second peak of infections that overwhelms the NHS.

STAY ALERT ▶ CONTROL THE VIRUS ▶ SAVE LIVES

The Prime Minister said that in addition to measures previously announced, from Monday, 1st June 2020, six people will be allowed to meet outside – provided those from different households continue to strictly follow social distancing rules by staying two metres apart. ‘Outside’ now includes private gardens and other private outdoor spaces. This means that people should not be inside the homes of their friends and families, unless it is for the purpose of accessing the garden.

The arrangements for reopening apply to England. The devolved administrations of Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland will issue the arrangements that apply in those countries.

In summary, for England the government’s approved dates for reopening are:

Monday 1st June 2020:

Nurseries, other early years settings, reception, year one and year six in primary schools.
Outdoor retail and car showrooms.

Monday 15th June 2020:

Non-essential retail.
