D. Commentary

The 5pm ministerial media briefing was led by the Chancellor, Rishi Sunak. He announced changes to the furlough arrangements for businesses which will involve employers beginning to make a contribution, slowly, over the coming months, and an extension to the Self-Employment Income Support Scheme.

Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme

- June and July 2020: The government will pay 80% of wages up to a cap of £2,500 plus employer National Insurance and pension contributions (ER NICs). Employers will not be required to pay anything.
- August 2020: The government will pay 80% of wages up to a cap of £2,500. Employers will pay ER NICs and pension contributions – for the average claim, this will represent 5% of the gross employment costs the employer would have incurred had the employee not been furloughed.
- September 2020: The government will pay 70% of wages up to a cap of £2,187.50. Employers will pay ER NICs and pension contributions and 10% of wages to make up 80% total up to a cap of £2,500. For the average claim, this will represent 14% of the gross employment costs the employer would have incurred had the employee not been furloughed.
- October 2020: The government will pay 60% of wages up to a cap of £1,875. Employers will pay ER NICs and pension contributions and 20% of wages to make up 80% total up to a cap of £2,500. For the average claim, this represents 23% of the gross employment costs the employer would have incurred had the employee not been furloughed. The scheme will close at the end of October 2020.

Self-Employment Income Support Scheme

The scheme will be extended, with applications opening in August for a second and final grant of up to a total of £6,570, or 70% of three months' worth of average monthly profits. The final grant will be paid in a single instalment. There will be no changes and no further extension to the scheme which will close at the end of October 2020.

The government will publish guidance on how to claim the second grant on Friday 12th June 2020.
