D. Commentary

The 5pm media briefing was led by the Transport Secretary, Grant Shapps, who reported that the estimate of the R number (the COVID-19 reproductive number) remains unchanged across the UK from last week at 0.7 -0.9.

Mr Shapps reminded everyone that from Monday, 15th June 2020, it becomes mandatory in England to wear a face covering on public transport - including buses, trains, trams, ferries and planes. Transport operators will be empowered to refuse permission to travel when someone is not wearing a face covering. He explained that over the weekend he will enact powers under the Public Health (Control of Disease) Act leading to fines for non-compliance. He also announced the introduction of 'Journey Makers' in the 'coming weeks' to assist and remind commuters of the need to wear a face covering as part of a 'Safer Transport' campaign.

The Transport Secretary concluded his briefing with a reminder to avoid mass gatherings of more than six people.
