D. Commentary

Arrangements to re-open the tourism and visitor economy in England from Saturday 4th July 2020 are now supported with the publication of guidance for heritage locations and hotels & other accommodation.

The government published a summary of the findings of its review of the two-metre social distancing rule – which underpins the re-opening of many locations and businesses from 4th July 2020.

Various guidance documents relating to the COVID Secure re-opening of business, venues and other locations have been updated to reflect the variation to the two-metre rule. These are listed with hyperlinks in the Recovery Planning section in the Annex to this briefing note.
